1. This is an application for grant of bail. The applicant Vaman Jadhav alongwith 2 other persons are shown as accused in C.R.No.10/2006 registered by the Chandgad police station for alleged offences under Sections 302, 120-B, read with 34 of IPC. The incident in question occurred in the background of a society election in village Dewarwadi. The present applicant was leader of one group and the brother of the deceased was the leader of the other group. The deceased Suresh Bhogan was admittedly stabbed only by accused no.1. The present applicant and accused no.2 Vaiju are roped in with the aid of Section 120-B of IPC. It appears that the original FIR was lodged by the Complainant Vaijanath Bhogan on 22.1.2006 only against accused no.1 but subsequently on 23.1.2006 statements were recorded indicating that accused no.1 who was assailant had some talk in the dairy of accused no.3 which is run by accused no.3. The witnesses however, do not say what was the nature of the talk. Subsequently police have recorded one more statement of one Gaudu Karde who states that the present applicant instructed the other accused to go and have a look to deal with the deceased. Apart from the fact the statement is 4 days after the incident, prima facie the words attributed to the present applicant are little vague. In my view bail can be granted by imposing stringent conditions. It is therefore, directed that pending his trial in C.R.No.10/2006 registered by the Chandgad police station, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will stay outside Taluka Chandgad. Prior to his release he will give address where he intends to stay to the Jail authorities and also to the investigating officer. He will report to the police station which is nearest to the place of his residence once a month on first Monday till the conclusion of the trial. Application stands disposed of.
